

POSTING N°22-23-64

TWO (2) OPEN RANK FACULTY POSITIONS IN PUBLIC ADMINISTRATION

PROFESSORS, PUBLIC ADMINISTRATION, OPEN RANK

Description about the positions

The École nationale d'administration publique (ENAP), the only French-language university specializing in public administration in North America, is an institution at the forefront of research and teaching in public administration, and is dedicated to the advancement of public administrations in Quebec and throughout the world.

ENAP is seeking exceptional candidates to fill two open rank tenure-track positions. The positions are open to any social science discipline related to public administration and public policy.

Candidates must be able to demonstrate strong leadership in their field of expertise. They have a proven track record of scientific production, and are able to transmit their knowledge with passion and commitment, supervising and mentoring graduate students and postdoctoral fellows in a diverse intellectual and social environment. The selected candidates will conduct innovative research and must be able to secure competitive external funding. They will contribute to program development and evaluation, as well as to the development of national and international partnerships.

Location

Quebec City, Montreal or Gatineau

Qualifications

All candidates must:

- Hold a PhD (or about to obtain) in public administration or in a related discipline.
- Demonstrate that their work is related to public administration.
- Demonstrate research skills, as evidenced by refereed publications.
- Demonstrate an ability to teach a variety of students.
- Have the ability to teach or transfer knowledge, in French, to people from diverse fields of expertise.

University teaching experience would be an asset.

In accordance with the requirements of Immigration, Refugees and Citizenship Canada, this position is intended primarily for Canadian citizens and permanent residents of Canada.

How to apply

Interested candidates are asked to send ENAP an application including the following elements (in PDF format)

- A letter of motivation specifically demonstrating the candidate's ability to fulfill each of the responsibilities and required qualifications listed above.
- A curriculum vitae.
- At least two letters of reference.
- A copy of two or three publications. In the case of a book, a copy of the title page, table of contents and introduction will be sufficient.
- A document related to one or more of the courses taught (course syllabus, teaching evaluation, etc.).
- Links to Google Scholar, ResearchGate or other profiles (if applicable).

Expected start date : [à venir]

Submit your application

Wishing to be representative of Quebec society and to be enriched by its diversity, ENAP invites all qualified persons to express their interest, in particular women, persons with disabilities, Indigenous peoples, members of visible minorities and ethnic minorities, as well as people from sexual and gender diversity, in particular with regard to the equal access employment program to which ENAP subscribes.

Learn more about equal access employment programs | CDPDJ

In addition, selection tools can be adapted according to the needs of people with disabilities who request them, in complete confidentiality. If you wish to make your specific needs known, please mention it in your submission.

Interested candidates are asked to submit their scanned application by April 10th at 5:00 p.m. to rh.emplois@enap.ca.

Salary to be determined according to the collective agreement for ENAP professors.

Please note that the language of teaching and work is French.

We thank you in advance for your application. Only those selected for an interview will be contacted.